An example of the report which you will receive after completing the survey

Note; this is only an example of the first two pages of your six-page report which covers twenty-five Factors.

This example is from CIO's data base and reflects one opinion for one company. No reference is made to the registrant nor to the name of the company.

For each Factor, you receive your ratings prioritized, other registrant's views, numerical results and a total 'score' for comparison purposes. You can repeat the process at any time – as the situation changes.
